We have 35 teams getting ready for the season. They all are hoping the weather breaks soon. So they can start outdoor practices. League games start the second week of April. We are also getting ready for the tournament.

Our dance on Feb. 14th was a great success and everyone seemed to enjoy themselves.

Keep these members in your prayers. Take time out to send a card, stop for a visit or give them a call. Time goes so slow and company is so nice.

Gala Alert!

Dear Brothers and Sisters of Kolping,

As you are aware, a great task is lovingly underway...the celebration of the Cincinnati Kolping Society's 90th year. A part of this celebration is a delicious meal to be plated and served by volunteers. An event of this magnitude will require many hands. We will need folks to set the tables for dinner, pre-plate salads and desserts, plate the dinners and serve our guests.

We're seeking out all teens (that perhaps need service hours), young adults and not so young adults (such as myself) that would be willing and perhaps feel called to serve in this mission. We will, of course, have a few training sessions and rehearsals, so that the execution of the dinner service is smooth and enjoyable for all.

Please consider volunteering for this "call to arms." We all have something to offer whether it's in the kitchen or out on the service floor. This is to be a great event and any time that you can spare will be of great service to those members that have laid the foundation of what we are today.

You can contact me by phone (513-266-6695, 513-851-7951) or e-mail (bethandpete@cinci.rr.com or beth@kolpingcenter.com) with any questions or concerns.
