Kolping Genealogy

Our August 19 Kolping Genealogy session will focus on how our ancestors reached these shores. These sources can provide families with much rich information. Session begins at 2:00 pm in the Clubhouse.

Immigration records, also known as "passenger arrival records," can provide genealogical information including:

- a person's nationality, place of birth
- ship name and date of entry to the United States
- age, height, eye and hair color
- profession
- place of last residence
- name and address of relatives they are joining in the U.S.
- amount of money they are carrying, etc.

It can be useful to research other genealogy sources to aid your search for passenger arrival records. Naturalization records, for example, particularly after 1906, can contain specific details of a person's legal entry into the U.S. -- the exact date and means (ship name, for example) of arrival. Census records often show year of immigration.

The Search box on Ancestry.com, our own National Archives, Genealogy.com, MyHeritage.com/Immigration, Archives.com/Immigration, TheShipsList.com, and other sites with immigration links make it so easy to type a name in the search boxes and go straight to the name in the directory. You may even be able to print a Ship Manifest and locate a picture of the ship your immigrant sailed on from port of departure to port of entry.

Deaths

Erwin Kohlmorgen, husband of Marcella Kohlmorgen, and member of Kolping for 32 years, passed away on July 19, 2018 at the age of 87. Everyone can remember Erwin being the "Bartender Extraordinaire" at lots of Kolping events for many years until his health began to fail. We extend our sympathy to Marcella and their children, Erwin and Brenda, along with the entire family.

Our condolences to Trey and Mike Seibel, whose father, George "Bud" Seibel, Jr., passed away on July 13, 2018 at the age of 83. Our prayers go out to the whole Seibel family.

May their souls and all the souls of the faithful departed rest in peace.

Schützenfest Grand Raffle Winners

Congratulations to the following winners:

Donna Faulk	Grand Prize
Delbert Fisher	Second Prize
Connie & George Kreutzjans, Jr.	Third Prize

NOTE FROM THE PRESIDENT

Have you ever had a humbling experience? A time when your best plans went up in smoke for reasons beyond your control? Such was our experience on Schützenfest Friday and Saturday when continual rain "laughed at" our plans, washed away our patrons and turned our fest grounds to mud. But on Sunday, our prayers were answered and the sun returned, along with our patrons. We also have a new royal pair, King Ted and Queen Ann Hoerstmann.

Many thanks to Jim Stukenborg and his wife, Anna, for their tireless planning and organization. And it is always gratifying to see the large number of our members who enthusiastically give of their time to ensure a successful festival. Congratulations and thanks to all.

Tom Musbach

Kolping Seniors

Next Meeting on Augst 14th, 11:30 A.M.

Please join us for a good lunch and Gemütlichkeit. Sorry that I missed Schützenfest due to my fall. I wish to thank each and every one of you for your prayers, cards, calls and well-wishes while I was in the hospital and recuperating in the rehab facility. The support I have received from Kolping members is totally overwhelming. I will never be able to repay all of you. I pray that the good Lord will bless you for all you did for me, and give me the grace to continue to be part of a truly Christian organization.

Christa Olding

Schützenfest Thank You!!!

Thank you so very much for all your help and support of Schützenfest 2018! I think it was a truly great event, in spite of our weather challenges on Friday and Saturday (We were blessed to miss the worst of it though)! It was fantastic to enjoy such wonderful weather on Sunday and to be able to show Kolping and Schützenfest off in a great way.

The feedback we received from the people who came, the number of people that followed our Facebook Event and all the dialogue on Social Media; the feedback from our entertainers, from Jessica Brown, Catherine Bodak, and Brian Thomas, our sponsors, etc. has been overwhelmingly positive. I believe we put on an event we can be proud of, which is also a great introduction to Kolping and the Kolping Family. It is wonderful to see our Family continue to grow.

Goodwill and word-of-mouth is critical to Kolping and the Schützenfest, as it helps attract more people to come and join in the future. I truly feel we continue to set the wheels in motion for even greater success with all our advancements and new ideas, as well as our advertising and marketing efforts. We want to keep things growing and hope to have everyone's help and support as we try and improve things further in 2019!

We continue to have absolutely wonderful new faces helping each year! This is such super news as we continue to grow. I know many people are looking forward to doing even more next year!

As we continue with future Schützenfests and other activities, we want to tap more and more into younger members and their families to help Kolping be a meaningful part of our lives and the German community. We have something very special and unique to offer.

It is going to be a great year with the new court of König Theodore & Königin Ann Hoerstmann and Jr. König Aidan Wienkamp and Jr. Königin Evelyn Wurzelbacher! It will be fun and exciting to see the familiar and new faces come out and celebrate Kolping Style.

Thank you again for everything!

Treu Kolping,

Jim Stukenborg

Save or Return your Schützenfest Yard Signs!!!

Since we will re-use this year's yard signs for future Schützenfests, please either store them at your home or bring them back to the Kolping Klubhaus. We will distribute stickers next year to cover up the 2018 dates with 2019 dates (July 19 – 20 – 21).

IMPORTANT: Please be sure and also save or return the associated wires.
