

May 2020 Volume V, Number 5

Note from the Editor

Dear Kolping Members,

We are now into day 46 of self-isolation, all a bit weary of this big adjustment in our lives, but yet hopeful that we can possibly get back to “normal” lives as our states are slowly opening up again. Please keep praying for each other, as we are all affected by the COVID-19 pandemic in some way or another, but especially for our health care workers and other first responders who are tirelessly manning the front lines in this battle. Please keep doing as our governors and health directors are telling us and also reach out to any of the members of our Kolping Family if you need something. Stay safe, and remember – better days are ahead of us!

Nancy Pelzel

Kidney Needed

KIDNEY NEEDED for my wife, Elaine Wilke – Anyone have an extra kidney just taking up space in your body when it could be used to save Elaine? Are you wondering why God gave you two kidneys when all you need is one?

As of mid-January, Elaine has been officially registered on the Kidney Transplant List. Elaine has been on dialysis since September of 2018, and a new kidney would be a game changer for her. If you or anyone you know would consider a lifesaving kidney donation for Elaine, please contact Jessica Ratcliff at The Christ Hospital for more information. Her number is: 513-585-1427.

Thanks, Ted Wilke

Letter from the President and Vice President

Dear Kolping Family,

We hope that this May 2020 Bulletin finds you and your families safe and healthy!

It is unprecedented how much our world has changed in such a short amount of time. Social distancing, flattening the curve, and searching for stores that still have toilet paper and any sort of disinfectant weren't even a part of our lives two months ago!

Kolping, like the rest of the world, certainly has been affected by COVID-19. Since early March, both Kolping Center and Kolping Park have been quiet. All Spring Soccer and Softball leagues have been cancelled. Weddings, Corporate functions, and Hall rentals have all been cancelled or moved to, at the earliest, the middle of June. We were also obliged to cancel both the King's Ball and The Regional Sangerfest in order to comply with the Stay at Home Orders.

As we are all just beginning to settle into the "New Normal", The Kolping Board of Directors held the first ever videoconference Board meeting. What a blessing technology has been to help us meet the challenge of this pandemic and stay connected with each other!

Given the amount of uncertainty and concern for the health and safety of our members and community, the Board has decided to hold a "Virtual Schutzenfest" for 2020- more details will be coming SOON! King Randall and Queen Katrina Brunsman will be continuing their reign until we can all be together again in 2021 for the (biggest ever) 155th Schutzenfest.

We have also postponed the National Convention to September of 2021 and are looking forward to reconnecting with our fellow American Kolping Societies.

The House and Grounds Committee and the Tuesday Workers continue to maintain the building and the property, and have been doing a great job on keeping up with the maintenance of Kolping. When the restrictions are lifted, and we find out what the new norm is going to be, we will be ready for it.

We are working diligently to come up with some new and exciting ideas for fundraisers, including "Virtual Schutzenfest", to offset some of the missed incomes.

Letter from previous column cont'd.

We are always open for ideas, as well. There will be more to come, in the next few months.

Please check in on the elderly and if there is anything we (the Kolping Family) can provide, please do not hesitate to call us. Please remember to wash your hands regularly, wear your masks, and stay safe.

Thank You,

Ted Hoerstmann and Anna Stukenborg

Also please say prayers for Kate Callahan, granddaughter of Mike and Manette Callahan and daughter of Ben Callahan, as well as all members of the Kolping family who are in need of prayers.

Please take time out of your busy schedule for these folks. Send a card or give them a call. It is always nice to hear from friends when you are not feeling well. Please pray for all members to be safe from the corona virus.

Kolping Seniors

All meetings will be cancelled until further notice. Please take care of yourself and pray for an end to this coronavirus crisis. Call and check on each other – time can get long, especially when you are by yourself.

Note from Our Praeses, Fr. Dan

We are still celebrating the great feast of Easter. This past Sunday, the Gospel reading was the Emmaus narrative from the Gospel of Luke (Lk 24:13-35). It tells the story of Cleophas and his companion and how they met the risen Lord on their way to Emmaus on the day of the resurrection. I have always assumed that the two disciples were a married couple who were returning home after the death, burial and resurrection of Jesus. I usually refer to them as Mr. and Mrs. Cleophas when I preach the Emmaus gospel from Luke. There are some similarities in our current situation.

Then, I want to share some thoughts on Luke's narrative about Cleophas and his companion on their way to Emmaus when Jesus joins and asks them questions about what they were experiencing as they were going from Jerusalem to Emmas. I will point to the worry, depression and so forth that is happening to folks today in the COVID-19 pandemic.

Cleophas and his wife faced great disappointment and anxiety. Think about the way Cleophas seems disturbed when Jesus asks, "What things?" Cleophas responds sharply, almost biting the stranger's head off. "Are you the only visitor that does not know the things that took place there in these days?" Jesus was leading the two crest-fallen disciples to reflect upon the events they witnessed in light of the prophets. "How slow you are to believe all that the prophets spoke." Later, they recognized Jesus because he interpreted the scriptures for them, in light of his passion, death and resurrection. They only recognized the Lord when he broke bread with them.

Think about how we are still grappling with the COVID-19 lockdown. It was a real shock we all experienced when we learned we could not celebrate any church services or take part in an Easter Mass. I was surprised when the administrator of West Park called to inform me that there would be no visitors and no church services, by order of the Governor and of the Archbishop.

It is so sad to see how families are suffering because of the death of loved ones and the infection of so many. Yet that is what happened as we approached Easter. Think of the millions who suddenly lost their jobs or who lost a parent, spouse or child because of the COVID-19 pandemic. What pain to see loved ones die while they could not be at their bedside. What do you tell children to try and explain why schools had to be closed? What can one say to the unemployed or those facing eviction when they cannot pay their rent on time?

Yet in all of this, we need to keep our faith and hope alive. Were Fr. Kolping alive today, what do you think he might say to help us? One thing for sure, he would want us to embrace the suffering, accept our crosses and keep on living our faith. Just as Mr. and Mrs. Cleophas had to do.

Fr. Dan

2020 National Kolping Convention Postponed Until September 2021

Through consultation with National Kolping and all of the 2020 Kolping Convention Planning Committee members, we reluctantly have decided to postpone the National Kolping Convention until September of 2021. It appears that it will be quite a while until large gatherings will be allowed in Ohio and Kentucky, and with the majority of participants from out of town being in the high risk group of over 60, we thought it would be safest for all concerned to postpone for another year. Perhaps life will be more normal then and a vaccine for the Coronavirus may be available.

The National Kolping Board will decide how the Distinguished Service Awards will be distributed and when the succeeding convention will take place. Stay tuned for further details later in the year.

Genealogy Group

Bored at home? But have an internet connection? Might be a good time to schedule a look at this list over the days/weeks we are home following our governor's and county health officials' guidelines. Preserving our family genealogies depends on us!

No Kolping Genealogy on May 17th. Just like your kids and grandkids, it is time for "home study". Here are a few free-access sites.

1. Matricula (data.matricula-online.eu). We have covered this site in our live sessions but it is so good, it needs another examination. Take some time accessing Roman Catholic records.

Matricula is a nonprofit organization that made its mark by digitizing Catholic Church records from the old Austro-Hungarian Empire. Among records, you'll find Catholic registers from Münster and Paderborn, as well as the German Grand Duchy of Luxembourg. Unique to this site is the large collection of Roman Catholic Militärkirchenbücher, the "barracks parishes" of garrisoned soldiers who were often far from home. Matricula has a language "flipper" that translates the home page into English, but some pages, the originals, are in German only. Archion covers the major Protestant denomination of Germany (archion.de). Also a great site, but the crisp, clear scans of records are available at a cost. You would have to subscribe to this site.

2. Family Search (familysearch.org) has long provided materials for German genealogists. They house an enormous collection of vital records (baptisms, marriages and burials) and newly image-only (not yet indexed) original documents we can browse. A Lot of "peer" help is available through what is called a "wiki" of German researchers. Visit them at https://www.familysearch.org/wiki/en/Main\_Page (watch your typing, capital letters are critical in this one). Click Europe off this home page, then Central Europe, then Germany to find a treasure of research. Then join a Community to help yourself and others: (community.familysearch.org) and click Groups on the top menu bar, choose Germany and choose +Join Group on the upper right.

Now two maps sites to visit:

3. Meyers Gazetteer (<https://www.meyersgaz.org/>). Learn about German places. This site hosts a geographical

Dictionary of the Second German Empire with lots of details on Terman villages: population, churches, civil registration, courts, military districts. Once you search your village, it comes up on an old map! You can sign up to "meet" other researchers under the E-mail tab.

4. Kartenmeister (<http://kartenmeister.com/preview/databaseuwe.asp>) complements the above, but focuses on the time of World War I and II, as borders shifted and place names were changed – lands east of the Oder and Neisse Rivers in places such as East Prussia, West Prussia, Brandenburg, Posen, Pomerania and Silesia. Searching your "Heimat" or village will give you GPS coordinates, a link to a Google map, and historical population estimates. You can also join the database of fellow researchers here too.

Visiting these four sites will keep us all busy for months!

In order that the membership can be aware that a member has died, the family of the decedent should be willing to place in the Death Notice that the decedent is a member of the Kolping Society and at what time Kolping members should assemble for prayers. (This should be mutually agreed upon by the family and the Kolping representatives.)

Kolping Name Badges

We all miss our Kolping meetings and events – always a time for cheer and happiness! Some of us will need to re-learn names after the lockdown is lifted. You may order custom name badges to wear at Kolping events. The cost for these is minimal and is coordinated by member Tom Montgomery, representing the Society. He will just need your first and last name, email, phone and funds. Tom can be reached at 513-969-5383 or montgota@fuse.net. You can send him a check (515 Vinnedge Ct., Fairfield, OH 45014) or just wait until the badges arrive and Kolping is re-opened to pay and pick up your name badge.

Front will be the same for all name badges as follows.

Please specify Magnet or Pins (two on the back) and exactly how you want your name to appear on the badge. We need to order ten at a time.

Back-Magnetic to fit any article of clothing, but beware, it is NOT for those with Pacemakers; $4.75 each.

Back – two pins can be used to fit to any soft article of clothing; $4.00 each.

The name badges can be picked up at any general meeting, event or mailed back to you (at an extra cost). They are $4.75 (magnetic) or $4.00 (pins) each, with cash or a check made payable to Tom Montgomery (not written to the Kolping Society), 515 Vinnedge Ct., Fairfield, OH 45014.

Schützen Club News

I hope that everyone is staying healthy in these unprecedented times. With what the Ohio Governor announced, we will not be shooting in May and there will not be an end party. It will be up to the Kolping Board to give us directions on what we need to do and once I find out, I will let everyone know via email.

I sent an email to all members back on April 17th with the team and individual scores. If you did not receive that email and you want to know the shooting scores, please email me at:

Kolping History Corner

The Cincinnati Kolping Camp on the Little Miami River

by Nancy Pelzel

Excerpts from "Making a Difference: A History of the Catholic Kolping Society of Cincinnati"

As I mentioned in last month's issue, the Cincinnati Kolping Society leased property on the Little Miami River in 1925 where the members built their "Kolping Camp" for outdoor activities and festivals, including of course, their first Schützenfest, held in August of that year. They spent several months building the camp, and had it completed just in time for that first Schützenfest. Besides Kolping festivals, there were many other activities and parties that took place at the camp in the summer months, one of which was swimming in the Little Miami River. Unfortunately, in July of 1928, a 28-year-old Kolping member drowned in the river while swimming near the Kolping Camp, and then again in June of 1931, another member drowned near the camp.

By 1932, the Society members started building a new two-story camp because they had outgrown the first camp. It was completed in seven weeks with volunteer labor by many of the members under the leadership of Henry Gerbus. They built a dance floor, a shooting stand and plenty of seating for everyone. Ben Rauhen, Kolping President in 1934 & 1935, wrote about the camp in 1935, "... today it can be regarded as the most beautiful summer place that is owned by any of the German organizations of the city."

In January of 1937, the great flood in the Ohio River Valley unleashed its fury upon the region and the Kolping Camp stood 25 feet under water. It was still standing, though, and could be seen from a distance. Evidently the camp could be somewhat salvaged from the flood, since the members had a camp opening celebration in 1938, but by the end of 1938, Cincinnati Kolping could no longer renew the lease on the property, so they were forced to look for a new summer camp. Those long summer days at the Kolping Camp along the Little Miami River were over, and now it was on to the Muehlenhardt Farm on Winton Road, which became known as "Kolping Grove". Photos of the Kolping Camp are below and on the following pages.

KOLPING MISSION STATEMENT

We, the members of the Catholic Kolping Society of America, led by the vision of our founder, Blessed Adolph Kolping, promote the development of the individual and the family by fostering a sense of belonging and friendship through our holistic programs of spiritual, educational, charitable, and social activities.
