Tuesday Workers: A Sixty Year Tradition

The purpose of this article is to make an appeal. I am sure every Kolping member is aware of our rich German heritage. This point is not lost on our current Tuesday Workers. Many of our Tuesday Workers are first generation Americans. Sadly, we lose more and more of these treasured individuals each year. A recent poll of the 20 to 25 who show up each week showed that the average age of a Tuesday Worker is 72.5 years. Some of the workers are in their 80s and two are in their 90s. Although they may have lost some of the youthful bounce in their step, they have certainly not lost their exuberance and love of Kolping!

99% of Tuesday Workers are retired; 95% are men. I am asking for a commitment from any Kolping member who is willing and able to join the Tuesday Workers and help honor the tradition started by the founders of this group. This appeal is to ALL Kolping members, men and women, retired or not. Tuesday Workers start at 9 A.M. and work until 2 or 3 PM. A lunch is served at noon. We task ourselves with grass cutting, trimming, landscaping, electric, plumbing, carpentry, painting, cleaning and any other task needed to keep our facility one of the best around and to honor those to whom the Cincinnati Kolping has meant so much.

Some of our workers are only able to commit to part of the day. Their time is greatly appreciated and valued. You do not have to be mechanically inclined or a skilled laborer, although we definitely could use those skills. We do, however, take great pride in our WORK ETHIC! If Kolping has meant something to you or your family and you are looking to give back, this might be the way! Thank You and God Bless!

Deaths

Peter Dinnesen, husband of the late Bonita (nee Pflum) Dinnesen and Kolping member for 56 years, passed away on December 22, 2021 at the age of 81. Pete participated in the War Relief Effort after World War II in 1948, he was a member of the Kolping Choir in the 1950s, he was a longtime Tuesday Worker, and received the Cincinnati Kolping Meritorious Service Award in 2012. He also supplied many of the photos for the Kolping history book. We extend our sympathies to Pete's children: Janet Potavin, Judy Wells, Jean Nguyen, Jon and Jared Dinnesen, as well as the extended Dinnesen family.

Raymond Kunze, husband of Lois (nee Voelker) Kunze and Kolping member for 39 years, passed away on January 16, 2022 at the age of 87. Ray was a member of the Kolping Board of Directors four times, the chairman of the House & Grounds Committee, as well as a member of that committee for over 20 years, a member of the Tuesday Workers, the president of the Schützen Club, and a recipient of the Cincinnati Kolping Meritorious Service Award in 1992. Ray was also well-known for his Manhattans and Whiskey Sours that he prepared for the Awards Banquet for more than 20 years. Our condolences go out to Lois and their children, Christine Riley, R. Mark and R. Paul Kunze, along with the extended Kunze family.

Raymond C. Sander, husband of Barbara (nee Albring) Sander and the late Mary Jane (nee Minnich) Sander, passed away on January 20, 2022 at the age of 85. Ray had been a Kolping member for over 45 years. Our thoughts and prayers go out to Barbara and their children: Linda Coleman, Teresa Adams, Tim, Mike and Tom Sander.

Mary Ann Rathman, wife of the late Edward Rathman and daughter of George Birn, one of the founders of Cincinnati Kolping, passed away on January 13, 2021 at the age of 92. Mary Ann was a major contributor to the Kolping history book and a participant in the Kolping 90th Anniversary Celebration.

Save the Date for the 2022 Convention!

We are going forward with plans for the National Kolping Convention, which will take place on the weekend of September 9, 10 and 11. Further details will be included in future issues of the Kolping Bulletin, but in the meantime, please support this effort by buying an ad in the program booklet. See page 10 for details.

Message from Fr. Dan, Our Praeses

Jan 21st was the National Right to Life March in Washington, D.C. I was here at our Franciscan Media office in Cincinnati doing my daily duties, like writing this column. Concern and activism for the right to life has been part of our Catholic lives for almost fifty years now.

We often receive letters and phone calls here in which people complain that Franciscan Media is too liberal or too conservative because we report about the church, its good work, and its shortcomings. That is part of religious publishing today. "Why do you report about clergy abuse?" "Why do you publish critical views about racism?" "It is un-American to oppose the nuclear arms race." "Why does the pope show so much concern for immigrants?"

I mention these matters because Fr. Kolping had to endure a lot of difficulties in the pastoral work that he did. Because of his commonsense approach to the suffering of workers caused by the Industrial Revolution, Father Kolping had to be courageous and very careful. The Catholic Church, Protestants and other religions were all struggling to find their way. There were tremendous social tensions between the extremes of communism and unbridled capitalism.

In that context, Father Kolping eventually developed our organization. Today we call it the Kolping Society. Then it worked to help the workers who lost so much during his time. What skilled workers like shoemakers, tailors, metal workers and small farmers could do to earn a living could then be done by factories and machines for lower cost, though often the products were of lesser quality than the work of skilled guild members. That was the age of the Industrial Revolution.

Today the Church must struggle with new social issues. The late Cardinal Bernardin called for living a seamless value of life, not only on the issue of legal abortion, but also on such issues as racism, war, capital punishment, nuclear weapons, global warming, and the destruction of our environment. In thinking about the value of life involved in the Right to Life campaign, I feel we do well to reflect carefully on the ethical stance outlined by Cardinal Bernardin. He pointed to other issues that we also need to oppose abortion. Unfortunately, Cardinal Bernardin was not able to convince all the U.S. bishops on this matter.

Message from Fr. Dan (cont'd.)

Now I point to another example. Archbishop John Wester of Santa Fe, New Mexico, recently published "Living in the Light of Christ's Peace," which is subtitled as "A Conversation Toward Nuclear Disarmament." This pastoral letter is an invitation to the members of his archdiocese and to all Americans, to work for an end of the nuclear weapons race, which is a huge budgetary issue for all the nuclear powers. (This pastoral letter is available on the website of the Archdiocese of Santa Fe at <https://archdiosf.org/> and was published on the 11th of January, 2022.)

So please ponder these matters and expand your heart and soul with me.

Fr. Dan Kroger, OFM

Letter from Our President, Anna Stukenborg

Dear Kolping Family,

As we are all settling into the New Year and have all of the Christmas decorations tucked back away, we can take a deep breath and look forward to things to come. By now most of us have either sent in our checks or clicked on the Membership Payment button on the Kolping website and paid our Membership Dues. But what does that mean? For some of us, it is something that we have done for most of our lives. For our newer members, it is not quite habit yet. But for all of us, it means that we belong to and identify with something far greater than our own individual selves! Hundreds of thousands of people on the face of this earth have taken the same oath that each one of us has taken – “to faithfully stand by Fr. Kolping and his work, to serve our families, occupations, mankind and God.”

The best part about belonging is that we share in our endeavors together. Our weaknesses are complemented by others’ strengths. Our burdens are shared, and our combined talents, knowledge, and experiences allow us to accomplish great things, when we work together. I see the evidence of this happening every year when over a thousand volunteers serve during Schützenfest! Each person doing his or her part to accomplish a common goal is an amazing thing, and we are very blessed!

But our Kolping family’s work is so much more than just one weekend during the summer. Fr. Kolping worked tirelessly to help others his entire life. He wholeheartedly served so that others could have a better life. At the time it must have seemed insignificant to teach a skill, tend to a sick person, or pray for a young person trying to build his life. Now almost 180 years later, those little things are still changing the world.

The bottom line is that any big accomplishment is made up of many little actions. The more members we have contributing to those little actions, the easier the work, and the bigger the accomplishment. Everyone on our membership list has valuable gifts, talents, and abilities to do the little things that make up the big things that change the world.

Let’s continue to faithfully stand by Fr. Kolping’s work.

Treu Kolping!
Anna Stukenborg
