Phone Problems

We continue to have issues with our Cisco phone system at the Cincinnati Kolping Society. As a result, we are in the process of suspending its use until the issues are resolved or we cancel the service. If you need to contact the Kolping Facility, please reach out to Nick Caserta at 513-713-7318 for facility rental information, Walt Gerbus for House and Grounds, Jim Schnieder for financial questions, and Tom Beiting or John Mueller for any other questions or concerns. Phone numbers are on page 1. We apologize for any inconvenience these Cisco phone system issues may have caused you in the past.

Thank You!

A special THANK YOU to Ralph Ostendorf and Ostendorf Greenhouses for donating all the flowers that were planted around the Kolping grounds prior to Schützenfest. They certainly made the place look beautiful so that we could put our “best foot forward” to all the festivalgoers.

Letter from the President

Dear Fellow Kolping Members,

Now that we are half way into the year, I'd like to highlight a few items.

1) Schützenfest: Schützenfest holds the proud title of being the oldest German-American festival in Cincinnati, with German immigrants bringing it here in 1866. This festival is a cherished event that brings together generations of Cincinnati Kolping members and friends to celebrate our heritage, culture, and camaraderie. We need to extend our heartfelt thanks to Tom and Amy Freese, our Festival chairpersons, and all the volunteers who made this event possible. Special thanks also go to our past King and Queen, Paul and Amy Ahrnsen, for their dedication and leadership over the past year, embodying the true spirit of our Kolping Society. To our new King and Queen, Scott and Holly Scholz, congratulations! We look forward to you representing our Kolping Society and the fun we will have.

2) Kolping Haus Business Manager: We have hired Nick Caserta as the new Kolping Haus Business Manager. Nick is responsible for the Kolping Society facility rentals. He is a graduate of Roger Bacon High School and attended both UD and UC, with a background in Finance and Management Information Systems. He has extensive hospitality experience, having held increasing roles and responsibilities in the restaurant and entertainment industry. His most recent role was Assistant Manager for The Back Porch Saloon. Please welcome Nick to our team!

3) Organizational Restructuring: As stated in January, we recognize the need to strike a balance between the business requirements of our Kolping Society and the evolving needs of our society members. We have made significant progress on the organizational restructuring of our Society, with the proposed organizational chart now approved by the board and presented to the general membership. Building on the groundwork laid by the previous board, this restructuring aims to align our operations and create an environment where both the Kolping Haus business and the Kolping Foundation can thrive while meeting the diverse needs of our valued members. The new organizational structure will clarify functional interactions and management responsibilities across the Kolping Society, Kolping Haus, and Kolping Foundation, defining clear lanes of responsibility for each position within these entities. This comprehensive approach ensures that we are well-positioned for future success and better equipped to serve our community.

Letter from the President (cont'd.)

4) Operations: Transparency is a cornerstone of our society, and we are committed to enhancing it further. Our initiative to develop operational processes include: (1) Bylaws updates, (2) Financial reporting, and (3) Facility maintenance. As part of our operations improvement, the Kolping Society Board and Advisory Committee recognized the need for a financial assessment of our bookkeeping and controllership processes to ensure compliance with GAAP standards. We have contracted Kirsch, CPA Group to perform this assessment, with a report expected within the next 4 to 6 weeks. This report will guide the necessary changes to our operational processes and allow us to prepare for Jim Schnieder's retirement.

5) Membership Growth: In the spirit of growth and community, we are on a journey to expand our engagement of all of our Society members. The Board has clarified and reaffirmed, per our existing bylaws, that Associate Members are individuals who belong to one of the various subgroups of the Kolping Society, but are not regular members. Associate Members are welcome to all Society functions, but do not have voting rights. Consequently, the Board has decided that Associate Members should be counted within our local membership and engaged at our local level. This engagement includes our Cincinnati Kolping Society communications.

6) Rumors: The Kolping Society Board and I have never discussed the potential sale of any Kolping Society property or the removal of the Soccer subgroup and there is no intention of doing so. In fact, the soccer program is highly regarded as the best youth program we have, from both an historical and future opportunity perspective. Our focus is on engaging and encouraging greater participation from their large Kolping Society Associate Membership in our Society events. Our goal is to embrace the soccer families as integral members of the Cincinnati Kolping Society family, ensuring they feel even more welcome and valued within our Society.

As we move forward, the Kolping Society remains committed to honoring our rich traditions while embracing positive changes to enhance our community. Our successful Schützenfest, strategic organizational restructuring, improved operational processes, and dedicated efforts to grow our membership and membership programs all underscore our dedication to serving our members effectively. We are excited about the future and confident that these initiatives will strengthen our society, foster a sense of unity, and ensure continued success. Thank you for your ongoing support and involvement as we work together to build a vibrant and inclusive Kolping Society.

John Mueller, President

Discover Purpose

Cincinnati Kolping Society Clubhouse

Building on the announcement in the June 2024 Cincinnati Kolping Society Bulletin regarding our upcoming Discover Purpose meeting, I want to ensure everyone is informed and prepared for this important event.

The Discover Purpose meeting is designed to be a collaborative platform where we will redefine and refine our youth and member programs in alignment with the vision of our esteemed founder, Fr. Adolph Kolping. These sessions will involve meaningful dialogue, reflection, and brainstorming aimed at identifying areas for improvement and devising strategies to enhance our current program offerings.

Key Points for the Meeting:

1. Date and Time: Saturday July 20th, from 1:00 PM to 5:00 PM.
2. Location: Kolping Society Clubhouse
3. Purpose: Reassess existing and define new programs that align with our mission, values, and code of conduct within Fr. Kolping's vision. Your insights and ideas will help us shape the future direction of our society.
4. Preparation: Come ready to participate actively in group discussions. Bring your ideas on how we can pioneer new initiatives that benefit our members and community.

For those who may not have read the June Bulletin, you can find our announcement here on page 3: <https://www.kolpingcincinnati.com/Bulletins/2024/June2024 Bulletin.pdf>

Your involvement and dedication are vital as we embark on this transformative journey together. Let's work collaboratively to reaffirm our purpose and pave the way for a vibrant future for the Cincinnati Kolping Society.

If you cannot make the meeting but have ideas for our Society programs, you can submit your suggestion through the following:

<https://forms.gle/78RV9ri29KQHeGf49>. Members who plan on attending can also submit their ideas as well prior to the meeting to improve our meeting efficiency.

Thank you for your ongoing commitment to our shared mission. I look forward to seeing you on July 20th.

Sincerely, John Mueller, President

Kolping Foundation of Cincinnati

Just a few evenings ago, we decided to enjoy the nice weather and hold our Foundation Board Meeting in Kolping Grove at a picnic table. As we started our meeting, I was looking around the table and listening to people who are and have been very important to me. I was reminded of something that I have been far too busy lately to remember – that Kolping Cincinnati is a family with a deep desire to do good for each other and our community. I think that most of us see Kolping Cincinnati as a legacy left to us by the prior generations of German immigrants, first in the 1920s and then later in the 1950s. Their legacy of establishing a home away from home has brought us to our current property, our Kolping Haus.

My personal connection to Kolping is a relatively recent one. I moved to Cincinnati a year after Jim and I were married. I had no friends or family closer than four hours away and, as an adult, it is more difficult to meet new people and build new friendships. Within our first year of living here I found myself being included and embraced by some of the families who make up the Kolping membership: the Koesters, the Ahrnsens, the Hesslers, the Althoffs, the Musbachs, the Freeses, and of course Fr. Bruno- just to name a few. It was an instant family, a home away from home. Now, years later, I am certain that the reason the word “family” is used in the context of groups of Kolping members is because, let's face it, families have issues, arguments about money, dysfunctions, disagreements, and the familiar characters who both frustrate and amuse us.

But it was this family, with all of its faults, that led me to the Catholic faith. It was this family that has given me the opportunity and privilege to use my education, talents, and time to serve; at times, to serve far beyond the limits of my comfort zone. I am ever so grateful for that. It is our love for our Christian faith, our love for what Blessed Fr. Kolping accomplished in his lifetime, and what has been accomplished all over the world under the orange and black Kolping flag in the nearly 200 years since. That is why I love Kolping.

We, our Kolping family, have some significant immediate challenges to meet. We are up for the challenge because we love our family. The Kolping Foundation of Cincinnati is an investment in our future, which hopefully, in time, will help minimize our family's concern about finances and allow us and future generations to focus on investing in individuals and welcoming them to our Christian faith and eternal hope in Jesus Christ.

Over the next few months, the Kolping Foundation Board of Directors will be launching an all-new website, which will include our funding goals, ways to contribute, and an opportunity for our family members to share, “Why I love Kolping”.

Our current fund balance is $33,231.59.

Anna Stukenborg, President, Kolping Foundation

Message from Fr. Dan, Our Praeses

When I was teaching at Roger Bacon High School, parent-teacher discussions made an impact on me. Here is an instance that I cannot forget.

A teacher was citing the difficulties he faced with a freshman in one of his classes. He complained to the boy's mother: "Your son is going to fail Algebra. He just does not understand what he must do to pass. He is not a good student." The discussion got a bit heated as you can guess.

The student's mother countered saying: "He is not a bad boy, he just needs a lot of reminders."

Imagine how the parent-teacher dialogue might continue. Sometimes we can be like that with God. We may need lots of reminders.

If we read the Scriptures, we can see how the chosen people needed many reminders. That is what the prophets did. They tried to get the people to follow the demands of the covenant relationship. Often the people resisted the prophets and at times even killed them. Recall how Zechariah was stoned to death right in the Temple. Jesus tried to convince the religious leaders of his time to heed his teaching and change their ways, but eventually he had limited success.

Indeed, the Catholic Church today needs faithful disciples who witness to the Gospel that Jesus preached by their lives and diligent work. In his ministry Fr. Kolping worked hard to nurture the communities he established. Now it is our turn, our challenge. I wish that every member of our Kolping family would reflect on where we are and what we can do to strengthen the church today.

Here is a question for you. What does our Cincinnati Kolping family movement mean to you?

Remember, this is our one-hundred-year anniversary. Give some serious consideration to the question. Make notes if that is helpful. Share your thoughts with others. I believe that with God's grace we can make a difference, a solid impact on our world, one person, one family at a time.

Fr. Dan Kroger

Schützenfest 2024 Thank You!

Dear Kolping Family and Friends,

You deserve special recognition for making this year's Schützenfest a complete success! Thank you to all the volunteers, sponsors, set-up and tear-down teams, electricians, volunteer coordinator, sponsor sign up leader, shooting competition directors, parade organizers, advertising experts, logistics, supply, event planners, food and drink managers, parking gurus, booth captains, local police department, and special organizations who filled critical gaps. Your efforts are greatly appreciated and critical to the continued growth and success of the Kolping Society of Cincinnati.

We once again showed the people of Cincinnati how awesome the Kolping Society is and how we can celebrate our incredible German heritage with an amazing Schützenfest. The Schützenfest is a total team effort and cannot be accomplished without the help of everyone who belongs to and cares about the Kolping Society of Cincinnati.

A special congratulations goes out to our new King and Queen, Scott and Holly Scholz, as well as our new Junior King and Queen, Martin Scholz and Vivian DeFranco. We wish you all the best in the coming year. Let's continue the celebration!

We would be remiss if we did not put a bug in your ear for next year's Schützenfest, June 13-15, 2025. We need you! Once again, thank you for everything you do to make our Schützenfest a complete success!

Tom & Amy Freese

Note from the 99th King & Queen

Dear Kolping Members,

We would like to thank everyone at Kolping for your support during our reign. We had a wonderful time meeting so many new people from various German organizations in the area. It has truly been an honor representing Kolping and promoting our Society. We would especially like to thank our Royal Court for their support and a huge thanks to all of our chairpersons! Being the Schützen König and Königin was amazing and we are proud to be a part of this tradition.

Finally, a big "Congratulations!" to our 100th Schützen König and Königin, Scott and Holly Scholz! We wish them an exciting year! Thanks for a great year and let's celebrate our 100th!

König Paul II and Königin Amy Ahnrsen

In last month's Bulletin, we forgot to include Otto and Celeste Hermes's 60th wedding anniversary that they are celebrating during the year of 2024. Congratulations, Otto and Celeste!

Thank you!

A BIG THANK YOU to Jim and Anna Stukenborg, who have chaired the Schützenfest for the last eleven years! We owe a great debt of gratitude to them for growing the festival and making it the first-class event that it is today. And a BIG THANK YOU to Tom and Amy Freese, who have taken over the helm from Jim and Anna. Thank you, Jim & Anna, and Tom & Amy!
